

It is important that the FCC maintain regulatory review of broadband service. I particularly appreciate having a local ISP providing my broadband service, through a large carrier (SBC) at reasonable rates, where the staff is local, knowledgeable, and helpful. This would be jeopardized by the removal of FCC regulation of broadband services.